Claim Scenario

Thomas* was involved in a road traffic accident, suffering serious injuries to his leg and hands. ALPS Legal appointed and issued proceedings against the at-fault driver and an out of court settlement offer of £8,000 was made by the third-party insurer.

ALPS Legal advised Thomas to decline this offer, helping him to obtain further medical evidence. Following this, a subsequent offer of £35,000 was made and accepted. All of Thomas' legal costs and fees were covered by his policy.
